Data Practices Advisory: The City is required to provide the following information to you. Under Minnesota law, your name and home address are public information which must be provided to anyone who requests it. If appointed to a City Board and/or Commission, this information will also be publicly available, if requested. The other information requested is classified as private. This information may be used by the City Council in determining whether you should be appointed to a Board and/or Commission. Failure to provide the requested information may result in your not being considered for an appointment.

I have read the Data Practices Advisory and agree to the collection/release of my data as described.
